

Changes within France Telecom's executive management

Didier Lombard, France Telecom Chairman and Chief executive Officer, has decided the following changes within Group's management, starting from March 31, 2008 :

- Raoul Roverato is appointed Executive Vice-President in charge of the new growth businesses Division.
- Patricia Langrand, in addition to her current position, is appointed Special Advisor to the Chairman and CEO for relations with media and content players.
- The International Business Development Division, led by Anne Bouverot, reports to the Executive Senior Vice-President, Group General Secretary, Jean-Yves Larrourou.
- The Division in charge of operations in Africa, Middle-East and Asia (AMEA) led by Marc Rennard reports to the Executive Senior Vice-President, Group General Secretary, Jean-Yves Larrourou.
- The Home Line of Business, led by Antonio Anguita reports to the Executive Senior Vice-President in charge of Group Transformation and Operations in France, Louis-Pierre Wenes.

Jean-Yves Larrourou joined the France Telecom Group in May 2003 after 15 years spent at the French ministry of economy, finance and industry, where he was appointed Communications Director in 2001. In March 2004, he was appointed member of the Group Management Committee and Group General Secretary. Jean-Yves Larrourou, 46, is a graduate from École Centrale de Paris, Institut d'Études Politiques de Paris, École Nationale d'Administration and the Tokyo Institute for Fiscal and Monetary Policy.

Louis-Pierre Wenes began his career in 1972 at Matra Automobile. In 1989, he joined Coopers & Lybrand in 1989 as a partner responsible for the industrial and logistics sector, In 1996, he was appointed Vice President at A.T. Kearney and heading up its Paris office. He joined the France Telecom Group in January 2003 as Senior Vice President of Sourcing and Performance Improvement. He is a member of the Group Management Committee, in charge of Group Transformation and French Operations. Louis-Pierre Wenes, 58, is a graduate from École Centrale de Paris, and was born in 1949.

About France Telecom

France Telecom, one of the world's leading telecommunications operators, serves more than 170 million customers in five continents as of December 31, 2007, of which two thirds are Orange customers. The Group had consolidated sales of 52.9 billion euros in 2007. As of December 31, 2007, the Group had 109.6 million mobile customers and 11.6 million broadband internet (ADSL) customers. Launched in June 2005, the NEXt program (New Experience in Telecommunications) will enable the Group to pursue its transformation as an integrated operator and make France Telecom the benchmark for new telecommunications services in Europe. In 2006, Orange became the Group's single brand for Internet, television and mobile services in the majority of countries where the company operates, and Orange Business Services the brand name for services offered to businesses worldwide. France Telecom is the number three mobile operator and the number one provider of broadband internet services in Europe and one of the world leaders in providing telecommunication services to multinational companies.

France Telecom (NYSE:FTE) is listed on Euronext Paris and on the New York Stock Exchange.

For more information : www.orange.com, www.francetelecom.com, www.orange-business.com

Press contact:

Béatrice Mandine + 33 1 44 44 93 93