Orange Travel and Trip.com announce a global partnership to simplify connectivity for worldwide travellers

Orange Travel, a subsidiary of the Orange Group dedicated to providing eSIM connectivity solutions for travellers worldwide, and Trip.com, an international one-stop travel service provider, today announced the signing of a global distribution partnership.

This partnership aims to meet the growing demand for connectivity while travelling, by facilitating access to simple, reliable and competitively priced Orange Travel eSIM offers directly via the Trip.com platform.

Integrated eSIM offers available directly on Trip.com

From June 2026, Trip.com customers will be able to access an exclusive Orange Travel eSIM offer covering five European destinations: France, Italy, Spain, the United Kingdom and Switzerland. By targeting these countries, Orange Travel is positioning itself to capture the region's main tourist flows, as Europe accounts for over 50% of global tourist arrivals, led by France and Spain¹.

These tailor-made offers include calls, texts and data, in 20 GB, 50 GB and 100 GB packages, for up to 7, 10, 15 or 30 days, available from €8.99.

In just a few clicks on the Trip.com platform, travellers can:

- select their package
- pay in their local currency
- activate the eSIM upon arrival at their destination

Industry-leading connectivity, powered by the Orange Group

Supported by the Orange Group, one of the world's leading telecommunications operators, Orange Travel stands out for:

- connectivity in over 200 destinations
- first-class network quality thanks to the Group's 700 roaming agreements worldwide, ensuring reliable and high-performance coverage in every destination
- secure connectivity, reinforced by the Group's advanced cybersecurity solutions
- customer service available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year, to support travellers at every stage of their trip, wherever they are

Connect Your Global Journey Seamlessly with Trip.com with exclusive eSIM offers

Trip.com delivers a truly end-to-end travel experience by enabling travellers to plan and book their entire journey in one place—flights, accommodations, and in-destination activities—supported by broad international coverage.

Trip.com also addresses a key factor in modern travel success: connectivity. Through the partnership with Orange Travel, one of the world's leading players in the market², Trip.com offers exclusive tailor-made eSIM solutions that empower explorers to stay connected for navigation, communication, and sharing moments – anytime, anywhere.

Frédéric Bléhaut – CEO of Orange Travel – said: “This partnership with Trip.com demonstrates our commitment to accelerating our growth in Asia and internationally through strategic partnerships. Orange Travel offers European eSIMs with a recognised quality of service backed by the Orange Group's know-how. By combining our expertise with a platform that supports millions of travellers in Asia and around the world, we are affirming our position as a leading eSIM partner for global tourism.”

Chase Liu, General Manager of International Attractions and Tours Business, Trip.com Group said, “We are pleased to partner with Orange Travel, further strengthening our eSIM solutions in Europe and beyond. With tailor-made offers and packages easily accessible on our platform, our customers can enjoy enhanced connectivity and greater convenience when they travel in this region.”
