Orange's revenues and adjusted EBITDA grew for the second consecutive year in 2017, while Operating Cash Flow grew for the first time since 2009*.

- In France, revenue grew for the first time since 2009, up 0.6%;
- In Spain, record growth rates achieved, with revenues up 7.1% and adjusted EBITDA up 17.0%*;
- In Africa & the Middle East, revenue growth accelerated to 3.0%*.

This momentum was underpinned by an excellent operational performance in the fourth quarter.

- A record quarter in fibre with 164,000 net sales in France and 175,000 in Spain;
- Orange France recorded 212,000 net sales of mobile contracts¹ in the fourth quarter; approximately double the fourth quarter of 2016, continuing the excellent sales trend of the third quarter;
- Steady growth of retail convergence offers in France and the Europe segment with 10.3 million customers at the end of 2017, up 11.1% on the year;
- Successful launch of Orange Bank with 55,000 accounts opened by 2017 year-end.

2017 CAPEX of 7.2 billion euros supported our strategy of differentiation through investment in our network quality and customer experience. At December 31, 2017, 26.6 million homes were potentially connectable to high-speed broadband², and 4G was rolled out in three new countries, bringing the total to 21 countries.

With confidence in the momentum and financial strength across the Group, the Board of Directors confirms the payment of a 0.65 euro dividend for fiscal year 2017³ and will propose at the 2019 Annual General Meeting of Shareholders a dividend payment of 0.70 euro per share for the 2018 fiscal year. The 5 euro cents increase in dividend will be reflected in the interim dividend (0.30euro per share), which is payable in December 2018.

Commenting on the 2017 earnings report, Stéphane Richard, Chairman and CEO of Orange Group, said:

“2017 was a remarkable year for Orange in more ways than one. The Group delivered an excellent commercial performance, driven by very high-speed broadband. We now have 4.7 million fibre customers and 46 million 4G customers across the Group. This performance has translated into solid financial results. Thanks to a strong fourth quarter, revenues in France returned to growth for the first time since 2009. Spain maintained its impressive growth, while our Africa & Middle East segment recovered strong momentum, with 3% revenue growth year on year.

Buoyed by these positive results, the Group’s operating cash flow grew for the first time since 2009.

2017 also saw the launch of Orange Bank, which has succeeded in attracting close to 100,000 customers in less than four months. Our expertise in financial services is now recognised and the success of Orange Money, with its 37 million customers, shows no signs of slowing.

This strong performance can be attributed to the significant contribution of the women and men of Orange and I would like to warmly thank them for their commitment.

Our strategy, based on sustainable value creation, is delivering. This has enabled us to reaffirm our objectives for 2018 and to recommend an increase in the 2018 dividend for our shareholders.”

2018 and mid-term outlook⁴

Orange re-affirms the 2018 objectives announced at its Investor Day on December 7:

- growth in adjusted EBITDA greater than that achieved in 2017 on a comparable basis;
- higher CAPEX, peaking at 7.4 billion euros in 2018;
- growth in Operating Cash Flow greater than in 2017 on a comparable basis;
- net debt to adjusted EBITDA for telecom activities to be held at about 2x in the medium term, to maintain Orange's financial strength and investment capacity.

For 2019 and 2020, growth in adjusted EBITDA, decrease in CAPEX and growth in Operating Cash Flow.

⁴ These objectives, originally announced on the basis of the financial data presented in accordance with accounting standard IAS 18, are maintained under the application of the new accounting standard IFRS 15 in effect since January 1, 2018. They do not include the effects of IFRS 16, which will take effect on January 1, 2019.

Comments on key Group figures

Revenues

Orange Group revenues were 41.096 billion euros in 2017, an increase of 1.2% (+503 million euros) on a comparable basis⁵, twice that achieved in 2016 (+0.6%, or 249 million euros). In the fourth quarter of 2017, Group revenues were up 1.8% on a comparable basis, having risen 0.9% in the third quarter and 1.1% in the first half. Faster growth in the fourth quarter was primarily due to the inclusion of digital media apps in France from October 5, as well as the recovery in the Africa & Middle East segment.

The fourth quarter 2017 revenue trends by region were as follows (on a comparable basis):

In France, revenue increased to 1.7% in the fourth quarter, following growth of 0.2% in the third quarter and 0.5% in the second quarter. Fixed-line broadband and mobile services saw improved growth, thanks in part to the inclusion of digital media apps.

In the Europe segment, revenues rose 2.3% in the fourth quarter of 2017:

- in Spain, mobile services grew 6.1% in the fourth quarter, reflecting additional services and 4G, and fixed-line broadband grew 5.4% driven by fibre and TV services;
- in Poland, revenues fell 2.4% in the fourth quarter. Mobile services remained down while growth in fixed-line broadband accelerated, driven by convergence and fibre;
- in Belgium & Luxembourg, revenues in the fourth quarter fell 1.3% with a decline in MVNOs and mobile equipment sales. Growth of mobile services excluding MVNOs and of fixed-line broadband improved, driven by consumer convergence offers;
- in Central European countries revenues were up 5.6% in the fourth quarter, driven by growth in Romania (+7.7%) and Slovakia (+2.5%).

In the Africa & Middle East segment, revenues rebounded 5.7% in the fourth quarter of 2017, driven by accelerated growth in Morocco and Egypt, and with growth resuming in the Democratic Republic of Congo. Growth in 2017 was 3.0%, up from 2.6% in 2016;

In the Enterprise segment, the revenue trend has been gradually improving (-0.1% in the fourth quarter compared to -0.5% in the third quarter and -1.6% in the first half). Growth in Cyberdefense and the Cloud remained strong (+17% and +15% respectively).

Customer base growth

In France⁶, fibre set a new annual record with 546,000 net sales in 2017 (including 164,000 in the fourth quarter) and reaching 2.0 million customers at December 31, 2017. The momentum in mobile contract sales⁷ was also very strong with 826,000 net sales in 2017 (including 236,000 in the fourth quarter), driven by Open offers and Sosh.

In Spain, the sales trend remained strong in the fourth quarter, both in fibre with 175,000 net sales, and in mobile contracts⁷ with 61,000 net sales in a highly competitive environment.

In Poland, fixed-line broadband had 61,000 net sales in the fourth quarter (driven by fixed 4G and fibre) and convergent offers represented 50% of the consumer customer base at the close of 2017. There were 64,000 mobile contracts net sales in the fourth quarter.

⁵ Expressed as data on a historical basis, 2017 revenues showed an increase of 0.4% over 2016. This includes:

- the impact of changes in scope of consolidation (+0.4 percentage points), mainly the acquisition of Cellcom in Liberia and Tigo in the Democratic Republic of Congo (nine months and six months of activity in 2016 respectively), and the acquisition of entities from the Bharti group in Burkina Faso (with six months of activity in 2016) and in Sierra Leone (with five months of activity in 2016);
- the effect of exchange rate fluctuations (-1.2 percentage points) and primarily the decline in the Egyptian pound.

⁶ Includes Orange France customers and Enterprise customers in France.

⁷ Excluding machine-to-machine.

In Belgium, mobile contracts⁸ saw record net sales in the fourth quarter (28,000 net sales), the highest level since the fourth quarter of 2011. The contract customer base⁸ of the Belgium & Luxembourg segment (2.4 million customers at the end of 2017) rose 3.3% year on year.

In the Africa & Middle East segment, the mobile customer base reached 130.5 million at December 31, 2017, an increase of 8.2% (up 9.9 million customers) year on year. Orange Money had 36.9 million customers and an active customer base of 12.1 million at December 31, 2017.

Group-wide, the number of mobile customers was 211.4 million at December 31, 2017, up 5.0% year on year (+10.1 million net sales) on a comparable basis. Customer contracts (74.6 million) grew 7.2% year on year, while 4G reached 46.2 million customers.

Fixed-line broadband customers (19.5 million at December 31, 2017) grew 4.7% year on year; fibre, with 4.7 million customers, grew 43%.

Consumer convergent offers had 10.3 million customers (up 11.1%), of which 6.0 million were in France, 3.1 million in Spain and 1.0 million in Poland.

TV services increased 6.9% year on year to 9.1 million customers as of December 31, 2017.

Orange Bank had 55,000 accounts open at December 31, 2017, which is ahead of the Group's initial forecasts.

Adjusted EBITDA

The adjusted EBITDA of the Group was 12.819 billion euros in 2017, an increase of 2.2% on a comparable basis. Adjusted EBITDA from telecom activities was 12.880 billion euros, an increase of 2.4% on a comparable basis (+306 million euros), despite the impact of the new roaming regulation in Europe. This increase is primarily due to a good performance in Spain, France and the Africa & Middle East segment.

Improvements to the cost structure provided the necessary flexibility to expand content offers and maintain commercial focus, particularly in the area of mobile equipment sales. At the same time, labour costs in the telecom activities declined 1.9% in 2017, reflecting the decrease in the average number of full-time equivalent employees during the year (-2.8%). Service fees and inter-operator costs as well as advertising and promotion costs were also down for the year.

In the fourth quarter of 2017, the adjusted EBITDA from telecom activities was 3.237 billion euros, an increase of 2.7% (+84 million euros) on a comparable basis. That increase was primarily due to revenue growth (+185 million euros), partially offset by an increase in operating costs (-102 million euros) related mainly to content costs and commercial expenses (purchases of equipment intended for customers). Labour costs increased 1.2% in the fourth quarter, related to an adjustment of the variable portion of compensation and profit-sharing, and to the share award plan for employees apportioned to 2017 (Orange Vision 2020).

Operating income

Orange Group operating income stood at 4.917 billion euros in 2017, an increase of 840 million euros on a historical basis compared with 2016, due to:

- a 769 million-euro decrease in the impairment of goodwill and fixed assets, with 210 million euros of impairment in 2017 (Democratic Republic of Congo, Niger and Luxembourg) compared with 979 million euros in 2016;
 - an EBITDA increase of 283 million euros;
 - and a rise in income from associates and joint ventures amounting to 52 million euros.
- These positive items were partially offset by:
- the impact of the acquisition of 65% of Groupama Bank (subsequently Orange Bank) for 124 million euros, with a loss of 27 million euros in 2017 versus a gain of 97 million euros in 2016;
 - and the rise in depreciation and amortisation to 118 million euros.

⁸ Excluding machine to machine.

Net income

Net income from continuing operations (2.114 billion in 2017) showed an increase of 1.104 billion euros over 2016 due to:

- an 840 million-euro increase in operating income;
- an improvement in net finance costs of 382 million euros, including a reduced impairment of the retained BT stock; a decrease in the cost of gross financial debt; and an increase in income from foreign exchange;
- partially offset by a 118 million euro increase in corporate tax.

Net income from discontinued operations fell 2.224 billion euros due to the disposal of EE in 2016⁹, which resulted in a positive income impact of 2.253 billion euros.

In total, Orange Group's consolidated net income was 2.143 billion euros in 2017, down 1.120 billion euros from 2016.

CAPEX

CAPEX for the Group was 7.209 billion euros in 2017, an increase of 3.4% compared to the previous year.

Growth in investment in very high speed broadband continued to increase, with a third of investment growth attributable to fibre mainly in France, Spain and Poland. In France, the growth in fibre investment remained strong and benefits in part from greater co-financing from other operators. At December 31, 2017, 26.6 million households had connectivity to very high-speed broadband¹⁰ (an increase of 6.3 million or 31% year on year), including 12.0 million in Spain, 9.1 million in France, 2.5 million in Poland and 2.3 million in Romania (following the mutual network sharing agreement with Telekom Romania).

The increase in capital spending on 4G and 4G+ mobile services represented around two thirds of investment growth in very high-speed broadband. This was largely due to accelerated rollouts in Africa & the Middle East, France and Spain. At December 31, 2017, 4G coverage as a percentage of the population was 95.9% in France, 95.7% in Spain, 99.8% in Poland, 99.7% in Belgium, 93.2% in Romania, 90% in Slovakia and 98% in Moldova. In France and Spain, investments focused on improving service quality in public spaces and on public transport.

The increased investment in information systems and services platforms is attributable to the launch of Orange Bank services.

Investments in customer equipment increased slightly: the expansion of convergent offers in Belgium and Spain was offset by optimising box costs in France.

The store modernisation program continues: at the end of 2017, the Group had 327 stores based on the new Smart Store concept, including 123 in France, 170 in the other European countries and 34 in Africa & the Middle East.

Changes in asset portfolio

At December 31, 2016, Orange had a 4% stake in the BT Group, following the sale of its investment in EE in January 2016. As part of the sale agreement, Orange agreed to hold onto its shares for a one year period. In June 2017, Orange chose to further reduce its exposure to BT by selling 133 million BT shares (or 1.33% of BT equity, for 433 million euros net of fees at June 22, 2017), and by issuing bonds¹¹ exchangeable into BT stock to the amount of 517 million pounds sterling (585 million euros). At December 31, 2017, Orange retained a 2.67% equity interest in BT Group.

¹⁰ Download speeds greater than or equal to 100 Mbps.

¹¹ These 4-year bonds were issued on the basis of a reference price of 2.88 pounds sterling per BT share. They include an exchange premium of 35% corresponding to an exchange price of 3.89 pounds sterling per BT share, and bear interest at a rate of 0.375% per year, which is a negative rate of interest after conversion into euros.

In October 2017, Orange signed an agreement to purchase a majority share in Business & Decision, a data and digital specialist in the Business Intelligence and Customer Relationship Management space. This transaction, due to be completed in the first half of 2018, is subject to the regulatory approval. If the transaction is approved, Orange will issue a simplified tender offer to acquire all the capital stock of Business & Decision. The acquisition of 100% of the equity is valued at approximately 63 million euros.

Net financial debt

Orange Group's net financial debt was 23.843 billion euros at December 31, 2017, representing a reduction of 601 million euros compared to December 31, 2016. The strict discipline observed in allocating resources made it possible both to support a proactive investment strategy and to maintain the Board's commitment to increase the dividend for 2017 by 5 euro cents¹².

The ratio of "net financial debt to adjusted EBITDA from telecom activities" was 1.85x at December 31, 2017, compared to 1.93x at December 31, 2016, due primarily to growth in adjusted EBITDA from telecom activities. This is in line with the Group's medium-term objective of a net debt to adjusted EBITDA ratio for telecom activities of around 2x.

Items related to the change in net financial debt and to the ratio of net debt to adjusted EBITDA for telecom activities are presented in appendix 4.

Dividend 2017

The Group confirms payment of a 0.65 euro per share dividend for 2017¹². An interim dividend of 0.25 euros per share was paid on December 7, 2017 and the remainder of 0.40 euros per share will be paid on June 7. The ex-dividend date will be June 5, 2018 and the record date will be June 6, 2018.

In France, revenues grew for the third consecutive quarter: +1.7% in the fourth quarter of 2017 after rising 0.2% in the third quarter and 0.5% in the second quarter. The fourth quarter of 2017 benefitted from the impact of digital media apps, available since October 5, and the recovery in mobile equipment sales (+10.0% after -0.8% in the third quarter).

Mobile services rose 2.5% in the fourth quarter of 2017 for the first time since 2011. Excluding the impact of the digital media apps, mobile services still recorded growth. The increase was driven by the excellent sales performance throughout the year. The increase in the contract customer base¹³ strengthened in the second half of the year, at +4.0% at the end of 2017. With 717,000 net contract sales¹³, 2017 had the highest net sales since 2008; 70% of net customer sales were made in the high end of the market. The number of customer convergent SIM card offers was 9.2 million at December 31, 2017 (+11.7% year on year). At that date, 73% of customer contracts included 4G (+11 percentage points year on year) and SIM-only offers represented 73% of the customer contracts (+8 percentage points year on year).

Fixed broadband services grew by 7.5% in the fourth quarter after rising 4.8% in the third quarter. Excluding the impact of the inclusion of digital media apps, growth is comparable to previous quarters and was driven by the commercial success of FTTH (fibre to the home) offers, which continue to penetrate the market at a steady pace. The fixed broadband customer base (11.2 million at the end of 2017) is up 3.1% year on year and includes 2.0 million FTTH customers (+37.6% year on year). Fixed broadband ARPU was up 4.2% in the fourth quarter. Excluding the impact of the inclusion of digital media apps, ARPU growth is comparable to previous quarters. Consumer convergent offers (6.0 million customers at December 31, 2017, a year on year increase of 8.5%) represented 59.3% of the fixed broadband customer base (+2.7 percentage points in one year). The continued decline of traditional telephony reached -10.9% in the fourth quarter. Wholesale and other fixed services were down 0.7% in the fourth quarter compared to a strong fourth quarter in 2016. Throughout 2017, they grew 2.9%, driven by unbundling and fibre.

In France, adjusted EBITDA rose 1.4% in 2017, and the adjusted EBITDA margin (38.2%) improved 0.3 percentage points compared to 2016. The increase in revenues, the decrease in labour expenses and the savings achieved under the Explore2020 operational efficiency plan were partially offset by the increase in content costs and other operating expenses related to business development.

In France, CAPEX was up 0.6% on a comparable basis. The growth of investments in very high-speed broadband (FTTH and 4G) remained strong, offset by the decrease in other investments. At December 31, 2017, 9.1 million households in France had access to Orange's fibre network (+2.2 million households year on year). At that date, 4G coverage reached 95.9% of the population (+8.3 percentage points year on year) and 49% of the 4G sites were equipped with 4G+.

Revenues in the Europe segment grew 2.3% in the fourth quarter of 2017 after rising 3.9% in the third quarter on a comparable basis.

Mobile services rose 1.1% in the fourth quarter of 2017 after increasing 2.3% in the third quarter, on a comparable basis. The slowdown in growth is linked to services provided to other operators, including the decline of MVNOs in Belgium. Commercial momentum continued to be high, with 346,000 net contract sales in the fourth quarter. The contract customer base was 34.6 million at December 31, 2017, an increase of 4.1% year on year, representing 70.4% of the total mobile customer base at that date (+4.8 percentage points year on year).

Fixed services rose 2.6% in the fourth quarter after increasing 3.5% in the third quarter on a comparable basis. Broadband growth remains strong (+7.8% in the fourth quarter following 10.0% growth in the third quarter) and was driven by a customer base increase of 7.5% year on year to 7.1 million at December 31, 2017, including 2.6 million fibre customers (+46.2% year on year).

Customer convergent offers in the Europe segment reached 4.3 million customers at December 31, 2017 (+15.0% year on year) and 142,000 net sales in the fourth quarter of 2017, driven by Poland, Romania and Belgium.

Adjusted EBITDA for the Europe segment increased 5.8% in 2017 on a comparable basis. The increase in revenues was partially offset by higher content costs, interconnection costs and, to a lesser extent, increased labour expenses.

CAPEX in the Europe segment rose 2.1% on a comparable basis. The significant increase in fibre and mobile services (4G and 4G+) investments was largely offset by a decrease in other investments.

In Spain, revenues grew a record 7.1% in 2017 after a 6.0% rise in 2016 on a comparable basis, driven by convergence and rapid development of fibre.

In the fourth quarter, revenues were up 5.0% after a 6.4% rise in the third quarter. Revenues from consumer convergence rose 9.2% (after an 11.8% increase in the third quarter of 2017), driven by 1.9% growth in the customer base year on year (3.1 million customers at December 31, 2017) and a 6.7% rise in revenues per unit (ARPCO¹⁴) in the fourth quarter. The consumer convergence base represented 83.1% of consumer fixed broadband customers at December 31, 2017 (+1.7 percentage points year on year).

Mobile services rose 6.1% in the fourth quarter of 2017 after a 7.5% rise in the third quarter, driven by the enrichment of offers and the deployment of 4G (to 9.3 million customers at December 31, 2017, +18% year on year), which is reflected by the 5.7% rise of mobile ARPU in the fourth quarter. Contract customer base¹⁵ increased 1.8% year on year (11.446 million customers at the end of 2017), with 61,000 net sales in the fourth quarter. At the same time, the growth of mobile services provided to other operators remained strong (national roaming, network sharing and visitor roaming).

Fixed services rose 3.1% in the fourth quarter of 2017 after a 4.8% rise in the third quarter, driven by fixed broadband (+5.4% in the fourth quarter and +8.3% in the third quarter). Fixed broadband had 4.2 million customers as of December 31, 2017 (+0.5% year on year), and saw ARPU increase 4.2% in the fourth quarter. Fibre net sales were 175,000 in the fourth quarter. With 2.3 million customers at the end of 2017 (+40.4% year on year), this represents 54.4% of the fixed broadband customer base (+15.5 percentage points year on year). TV services also grew rapidly, with 626,000 customers at the end of 2017 (+23.4% year on year).

In Spain, adjusted EBITDA increased sharply in 2017 (+17.0% on a comparable basis) and the adjusted EBITDA margin (29.4%) improved by 2.5 percentage points compared to 2016. Sustained revenue growth (partially offset by increased content costs and commercial expenses) was complemented by favourable developments in network costs related to the migration of ADSL customers to the Orange Spain fibre network.

CAPEX in Spain rose 2.7% in 2017, driven by very high-speed broadband. 4G coverage reached 95.7% of the population as of December 31, 2017 (+5.4 percentage points year on year) and a total of 12.0 million homes had access to fibre connectivity at that date (+2.4 million in one year).

CAPEX	443	466	455	(4.9)%	(2.5)%
CAPEX / Revenues	16.6 %	17.2 %	17.2 %

Revenues for Poland fell 2.4% in the fourth quarter of 2017 after a 1.3% drop in the third quarter of 2017 on a comparable basis. The slowdown in the fourth quarter is attributable to mobile equipment sales, which fell 12.8% (after a 13.3% rise in the third quarter) following a sales strategy changes to focus on value rather than volumes (reduction of subsidies).

Consumer convergent offers continued to grow steadily, with 90,000 net additions in the fourth quarter of 2017, driven by the success of the Orange Love offers. By the end of 2017, consumer convergent offers reached 1.035 million customers (+55% year on year), and represented 50% of the consumer fixed broadband customer base (+15 percentage points year on year).

Mobile services, which were down 5.9% in the fourth quarter of 2017 on a comparable basis (after a 7.1% drop in the third quarter), continued to be impacted by the development of instalment payments and SIM-only offers.

Sales momentum remained solid in the fourth quarter with contract net sales of 64,000, following a rationalisation of offers last September. As of December 31, 2017, the contract customer base was 9.7 million, up 5.0% year on year, while 4G had 5.7 million users (+34% year on year).

Fixed services fell 1.2% on a comparable basis in the fourth quarter of 2017, (after a 1.7% drop in the third quarter). Fixed broadband growth accelerated, with revenues up 7.8% in the fourth quarter (following a 6.6% rise in the third quarter) driven by convergent offers, fibre and fixed 4G. The fixed broadband customer base stood at 2.4 million at the end of 2017 (+10.5% year on year), of which 214,000 were fibre customers (+143% year on year). At the same time, traditional telephony revenues declined 13.5% in the fourth quarter.

Growth in other revenues remained strong, driven by fixed equipment sales (ICT and fixed 4G) and the development of energy distribution offers.

Adjusted EBITDA for Poland was down 4.8% in 2017 on a comparable basis, an improvement of 5.4 percentage points from 2016 (-10.2%). Lower revenues and higher interconnection costs (notably including roaming) were partially offset by lower commercial costs.

The improvement was particularly significant in the second half of the year, with a limited decrease of 1.8% after a 7.4% drop in the first half of the year. This was mostly due to the greater decrease in commercial costs (reduction of mobile handset subsidies and distribution channel optimisation).

The lower CAPEX in Poland in 2017 (-4.9%) on a comparable basis is related to mobile 4G, which had a coverage rate of 99.8% of the population at the end of 2017. At the same time, investments in fibre increased significantly. As of December 31, 2017, there were 2.5 million connectable households to fibre (+1 million year on year).

Belgium & Luxembourg

CAPEX / Revenues	15.1 %	13.5 %	13.5 %

Revenues from Belgium & Luxembourg fell 1.3% in the fourth quarter of 2017, compared with a 1.7% rise in the third quarter. The fourth quarter was marked by the sharp decline of MVNOs, in connection with the migration of Telenet customers to the BASE network and the end of the Lycamobile contract last July. In addition, there was a 7.3% decline in mobile equipment sales (after a 4.4% rise in the third quarter).

Excluding MVNO, mobile services grew 2.9% in the fourth quarter. In Belgium, there were 28,000 net additions to contracts¹⁶ in the fourth quarter, the highest level since the fourth quarter of 2011, and quarterly ARPU rose 3.2%. The contract¹⁶ customer base in Belgium & Luxembourg rose to 2.423 million customers at December 31, 2017 (+3.3% year on year).

Fixed services were up 29.2% in the fourth quarter (after a 27.7% rise in the third quarter), driven by the success of consumer convergent offers with 97,000 customers as of December 31, 2017, compared to 31,000 a year earlier.

Adjusted EBITDA for Belgium and Luxembourg was down 4.3% in 2017. Excluding the impact on 2016 results of the agreement with the Walloon Region regarding pylon tax (16 million euros), adjusted EBITDA rose by 0.7%. Revenue growth and lower commercial costs were partly offset by higher interconnection costs (roaming) and connectivity costs (cable network access).

CAPEX for Belgium & Luxembourg increased 12.4% in 2017, and was attributable to the development of convergent cable offers (IT and customer equipment). This was partially offset by the decrease in 4G mobile investments, from which coverage reached 99.7% in Belgium at the end of 2017 (62.9% for 4G+).

Revenues from Central European countries rose 5.6% in the fourth quarter of 2017, compared with 6.9% in the third quarter on a comparable basis. The mobile contract customer base¹⁷ grew 2.3% year on year on a comparable basis, to 7.9 million at the end of 2017, and the 4G mobile base (4.6 million customers) experienced very strong growth (+44% year on year). Fixed broadband had 394,000 customers at 31 December 2017 and consumer convergent offers (sold in all three countries) had 127,000 customers at that date.

In Romania, revenues rose 7.7% in the fourth quarter after a 10.4% rise in the third quarter, driven by mobile services and mobile equipment sales. Fixed broadband growth was boosted by the success of convergent offers (+33,000 net sales in the fourth quarter).

In Slovakia, revenues were up 2.5% in the fourth quarter after a 0.4% rise in the third quarter. In addition to a recovery in mobile equipment sales, mobile services trends and fixed broadband services also improved in the fourth quarter. .

In Moldova, revenues fell 0.4% in the fourth quarter. Mobile services continued to be affected by the decline in international traffic, while steady growth in mobile equipment and fixed broadband sales (driven by convergent offers) continued.

Adjusted EBITDA for Central European countries fell 1.7% in 2017 on a comparable basis. The increase in interconnection costs¹⁸ and commercial expenses (purchases of mobile handsets) was largely offset by growth in revenues.

CAPEX in the Central European countries rose 5.6% in 2017 on a comparable basis, with the acceleration of fibre roll-out in Slovakia and 4G in Romania. As of December 31, 2017, 4G covered 93.2% of the population in Romania, 90% in Slovakia and 98% in Moldova, and the number of households connected to very high-speed broadband reached 2.3 million in Romania, 0.4 million in Slovakia and 0.2 million in Moldova.

¹⁷ Excluding machine-to-machine.

Africa & Middle East

CAPEX / Revenues	20.3 %	19.5 %	18.3 %

Revenue growth in the Africa & Middle East segment continued to increase, up 5.7% in the fourth quarter after 3.1% growth in the third quarter, on a comparable basis. Alongside faster growth in Morocco and Egypt, the Democratic Republic of Congo returned to growth. The Sonatel Group¹⁹ (mainly Mali and Guinea) and the Côte d'Ivoire Group²⁰ (particularly Burkina Faso) also contributed to the quarterly growth of the segment.

The growth of mobile data services remained very strong (+36% in the fourth quarter) and driven by 4G, which is now available in 11 countries²¹ (with 11.1 million customers as of December 31, 2017, +16% in three months). Likewise, Orange Money revenues rose 58% in the fourth quarter, with 36.9 million customers at December 31, 2017 (including 12.1 million active customers). The enterprise market accounted for a third of the segment's growth in 2017.

In the Africa & Middle East segment, the mobile customer base was 130.5 million at December 31, 2017, a year-on-year increase of 8.2% (+9.9 million customers). In particular, contract offers (11.2 million as of December 31, 2017) grew 13.5% (+1.3 million) year on year, mainly in Egypt and Morocco.

Adjusted EBITDA for the Africa & Middle East segment rose 7.0% in 2017 on a comparable basis, and the adjusted EBITDA margin (32.1%) improved 1.2 percentage points compared to 2016. The growth in revenues and the decrease in interconnection costs offset the increase in technical maintenance costs (in line with network expansion) and the increase in operational taxes.

CAPEX for the Africa & Middle East segment rose 7.0% in 2017 on a comparable basis. The increase in investments related to the deployment of 4G networks in the 11 countries covered and, to a lesser extent, the deployment of fibre.

Revenues from the Enterprise segment was relatively stable in the fourth quarter of 2017, -0.1% after a 0.5% drop in the third quarter on a comparable basis. The improved trends, notably IT and integration services, which grew 3.6% in the fourth quarter after a 0.8% rise in the third quarter. Cyberdefence grew 17% in the fourth quarter, the Cloud +15%, and Applications²² +8%.

Mobile was up 3.0% in the fourth quarter, driven by equipment sales, while services remained impacted by the end of roaming charges in Europe last July. The number of contract customers²³ was 2.767 million at December 31, 2017 (+4.1% year over year) and the number of machine-to-machine SIM cards grew sharply (26.5% over one year).

Data services fell slightly (-2.3%) in the fourth quarter after a 3.8% drop in the third quarter. Improvements mainly affected IP-VPN services, which had 352,000 subscribers as of December 31, 2017 (+0.3% year on year).

Voice services fell 3.6% in the fourth quarter. The downward trend in traditional fixed telephony was partially offset by the rise in voice over IP and customer relationship services (contact number services).

Adjusted EBITDA for the Enterprise segment fell 2.3% in 2017 on a comparable basis. The decrease in revenues (-1.0%) and the increase in commercial expenses (cost of equipment sold) were partially offset by lower network costs and reduction in other operational charges.

CAPEX for the Enterprise segment increased 13.9% in 2017 on a comparable basis, due to the accelerated transformation of the segment's IT system and the development of network virtualisation.

²³ Excluding machine-to-machine.

Revenues from the International Carriers and Shared Services segment recorded an 8.6% decline on a comparable basis in 2017, which was linked to the decline in voice services to international operators, particularly for African destinations and Maghreb.

Adjusted EBITDA in 2017 was down 33 million euros compared to 2016, on a comparable basis. The decrease in revenues and the decrease in income from the sale of fixed assets were partly offset by the decrease in interconnection costs and lower expenses related to brand development.

CAPEX reached 282 million euros in 2017, an increase of 15 million euros on a comparable basis, relating to investments in submarine cables (including the Kanawa submarine cable between French Guyana, Martinique and Guadeloupe) and in content (Orange Studio).

Launched on November 2, 2017 in metropolitan France, Orange Bank's new banking and digital offer already had 55,000 customers as of December 31, 2017.

Orange Bank's operating income in 2017 was a loss of 93 million euros, compared to an operating profit of 85 million euros in 2016 (historical basis), mainly due to:

- integration of the bank's activities over twelve months in 2017, compared with three months in 2016;
- costs incurred in preparation for the launch of the Orange Bank offer;
- and effects related to Orange's new majority stake in Groupama Banque, now Orange Bank (loss of 27 million euros in 2017, compared to a profit of 97 million euros in 2016).

CAPEX rose 46 million euros, mainly due to IT investments, in preparation for the commercial launch of the Orange Bank offer in November 2017.

(1) Of which flows from operating activities related to Orange Bank and excluding operating tax receivables and payables. In 2016, the variance is mainly due to the payment of the fine for the Enterprises Market litigation for (350) million euros.

(2) Investments in property, plant, equipment and intangible assets financed through finance leases amounting to 43 million euros (91 million euros at December 31, 2016 and 43 million euros at December 31, 2015) have no impact on the statement of cash flows at the time of acquisition.

Appendix 4: change in net financial debt* from 2016 to 2017

(in millions of euros, on an historical basis)	December 31, 2017	December 31, 2016
Adjusted EBITDA- CAPEX from telecom activities	5,732	5,738
Change in CAPEX payables	307	305 (1)

Net financial debt*	23,843	24,444
Ratio of net financial debt / Adjusted EBITDA	1.85x	1.93x

The amount of the net debt as of December 31, 2017 does not take into account the effect related to the February 2018 deposit of approximately 346 million euros in connection with the Digicel dispute.

- (1) The change in CAPEX vendors reflects the Group's investment cycle and changes in investment levels from one period to the next.
- (2) The change in working capital requirement reflects changes in the operating cycle from one period to the next. In 2016, it included in particular the unfavorable impact of the fine paid to the Competition Authority in France for the Enterprise market (350 million euros).
- (3) Other operational items include disbursements for the Part Time for Seniors Plan and for restructuring, receipt of payments related to asset sales, and other operational items such as the change in operational tax debt.
- (4) In 2017: balance of 2016 dividend paid on June 14, 2017 (0.40 euros per share) and 2017 interim dividend paid on December 7, 2017 (0.25 euros per share). In 2016: balance of 2015 dividend paid on June 23, 2016 (0.40 euros per share) and payment of the 2016 interim dividend on December 7, 2016 (0.20 euros per share).
- (5) In 2017: sale of 1.33% of the share capital of BT Group for 433 million euros. In 2016: sale of Orange's interest in EE, acquisition of 100% of Cellcom in Liberia, of Tigo in the Democratic Republic of the Congo, and of Airtel in Burkina Faso and Sierra Leone.
- (6) In 2017, the other financial items correspond mainly to the impact of the financial hedges for the Group's exposure to pounds sterling.

* Net financial debt as defined and used by Orange does not include the activities of Orange Bank, to which this concept does not apply.

 The ratio of net financial debt to adjusted EBITDA from telecom activities is calculated based on the ratio of the Group's net financial debt to adjusted EBITDA from telecom activities calculated for the 12 previous months.

Appendix 9: glossary

Key figures

Data on a comparable basis: data based on comparable accounting principles, scope of consolidation and exchange rates are presented for previous periods. The transition from data on an historical basis to data on a comparable basis consists of keeping the results for the period ended and then restating the results for the corresponding period of the preceding year for the purpose of presenting, over comparable periods, financial data with comparable accounting principles, scope of consolidation and exchange rate. The method used is to apply to the data of the corresponding period of the preceding year, the accounting principles and scope of consolidation for the period just ended as well as the average exchange rate used for the income statement for the period ended. Changes in data on a comparable basis reflect organic business changes. Data on a comparable basis is not a financial aggregate as defined by IFRS and may not be comparable to similarly-named indicators used by other companies.

Reported EBITDA: operating income before depreciation and amortisation, before impacts related to acquisitions of controlling interests, before reversal of reserves of liquidated entities, before impairment of goodwill and assets, and before income from associates. Reported EBITDA is not a financial aggregate as defined by IFRS standards and may not be directly comparable to similarly-named indicators in other companies.

Adjusted EBITDA: reported EBITDA (see definition), adjusted for the impacts of key disputes, specific personnel expenses, the review of the portfolio of shares and operations, restructuring and consolidation costs, and, as applicable, other specific and systematically identified items. Adjusted EBITDA is not a financial aggregate as defined by IFRS standards and may not be directly comparable to similarly-named indicators in other companies.

CAPEX: capital expenditure on tangible and intangible assets excluding telecommunication licences and investments through finance leases. CAPEX is not a financial performance indicator as defined by IFRS standards and may not be directly comparable to indicators referenced by similarly-named indicators in other companies.

Operating Cash Flow: Equals adjusted EBITDA minus CAPEX. Orange uses this indicator to measure the performance of the Group in generating cash from its operations. Operating Cash Flow is not a financial aggregate defined by IFRS and may not be comparable to similarly-named indicators used by other companies.

Mobile services

Revenues from mobile services: include revenues generated by incoming and outgoing calls (voice, SMS and data services), network access fees, added-value services, machine to machine, roaming revenues from customers of other networks (national and international roaming), revenues with mobile virtual network operators (MVNO) and revenues from network sharing.

Mobile ARPU: the quarterly average revenues per user (ARPU) are calculated by dividing the revenues from incoming and outgoing calls (voice, SMS and data services), network access fees, added-value services and international roaming over the past three months, by the weighted average number of customers over the same period, excluding "machine to machine" customers. The weighted average number of customers is the average of the monthly averages during the period in question. The monthly average is the arithmetic mean of the number of customers at the start and end of the month. Mobile ARPU is expressed as monthly revenues per customer.

Roaming: use of a mobile service on the network of an operator other than that of the subscriber.

MVNO: Mobile Virtual Network Operator. These are operators that do not have their own radio network and thus use the infrastructure of third-party networks.

Fixed services

Includes traditional fixed telephony, fixed broadband services, enterprise solutions and networks²⁴ and carrier services (notably national and international interconnections, unbundling and wholesale telephone line rentals).

Fixed broadband ARPU (ADSL, Fibre, VDSL, Fixed-4G, satellite and WiMAX): the quarterly average revenues per user (ARPU) of broadband services per year are calculated by dividing the revenues generated by consumer broadband services over the past three months by the weighted average number of connections over the same period. The weighted average number of connections is the average of the monthly averages during the period in question. The monthly average is the arithmetic mean of the number of connections at the start and end of the month. Fixed broadband ARPU is expressed as monthly revenues per connection.

Fixed 4G (fLTE): fixed broadband offer using 4G technology as a substitute for the fixed-line network.

Convergence

Convergent offers customer base: consists of customers that have subscribed to offers combining at least a fixed broadband connection and a mobile contract.

ARPCO (Average quarterly Revenues Per Convergent Offer): ARPCO is calculated by dividing the revenues from consumer convergent offers (excluding equipment sales) generated in the preceding three months by the weighted average number of consumer convergent offers in the same period. ARPCO is expressed by monthly revenues per convergent offer.

²⁴ With the exception of France, where enterprise solutions and networks are listed under the Enterprise business segment.
